INTEGRATION STATEMENT

When Shelle Davis' application is granted, Shelle Davis will serve full-time as General Manager of the station and will work full-time, a minimum of 40 hours per week in that capacity. She will terminate all other paid employment in order to effectuate that commitment.

As General Manager, Ms. Davis' duties will include overseeing and assuming ultimate responsibility for the day to day activities at the station, including sales, on-air, and general office departments. She will also be responsible for overseeing on-air logs and traffic, sales to agency and local accounts, hiring of sales and office staff, and managing the Public File and E.E.O. program, daily on-air newscasts, and commercial production undertaken by the station.

Ms. Davis will seek enhancement credit by virtue of her gender (female), her minority status (African-American decent), her past local area residency adjacent to the community of Westerville (1982-92), her proposed future residency in or adjacent to Westerville, and her past local area civic activities and involvement in the business community.

Shellee Davis' involvement in activities within the proposed service area of the station are as follows:

She has belonged to a national women's civic organization called The Columbus Chapter of Links, Inc. for the past four years. Last year the organization's Project Lead program enabled her to work closely with sixth and seventh graders to help improve their self-esteem and offer alternatives to promote a more positive life-style. The organization adopted New Johnson Park Middle School and conducted various seminars for eight hours per week for a year. She was chairperson of the vocational education and career options module for a six week period. Also, for two years she is the chairperson of the Arts Committee. Her committee is responsible for the promotion of local artists and exposing the world of art to the minority community.

She had completed Project Diversity, a United Way program to prepare minority men and women to serve as board members. She is currently on the Columbus Speech and Hearing board and the New Salem Baptist Church Business Development Board.

Within the past two years she has become involved in mentoring with two established programs. She was assigned to two young women for one hour or more per month through the Columbus Minority Business Center. Also, through the Women's Network for Entrepreneurial Training she is assigned a protege on a scheduled basis. Informally, she is requested to speak with people interested in starting their own business or who need direction in their current business. She provides the time to advised them on the resources and the contacts she had available.

She has instituted a Britt Business Systems, Inc. ("BBS") project where she keeps on staff a student from one of the Columbus high school career centers who is studying business. On a part-time basis the student assists the office manger with a variety of duties such as answering the phones, filing, typing, minor bookkeeping and data entry on our computer. Ms. Davis' intention is to give the student hands on business experience in a business environment. They learn what makes the operation flow, learn the importance of detail which is essential in business, and to make a better judgement about their career direction.

Also, as a BBS project, all the employees donate personal goods and money to one or two needy groups of BBS' choice at Christmas.

Ms. Davis was a 1991 "Columbus Chamber of Commerce Small Business Person of the Year" Finalist; 1991 U.S. Chamber of Commerce Regional Retailer of the Year; 1991 NAACP Honorary Chairperson; 1991 National Urban League Conference Presenter; 1991 Winner of the Ernest and Young, Merrill Lynch & Inc. DECLARATION OF DAVID B. SPILLERMAN

I, David B. Spillerman, hereby state as follows:

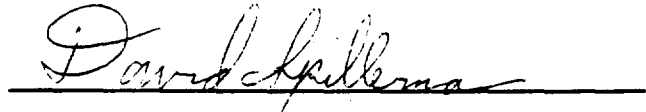

1. I am a legal assistant at the law firm of Ginsburg, Feldman and Bress located at 1250 Connecticut Avenue, NW , Washington, DC 20036. As part of my regular duties, I take documents to the FCC's Secretary's Office for filing. I have followed this practice routinely since the start of my employment with Ginsburg, Feldman and Bress in July of 1991.

2. On March 9, 1992 I personally filed with the FCC's Secretary's Office an original and two copies of an amendment to the application of Shellee Davis for Westerville, Ohio. One additional copy was date stamped and returned to our firm's files. That copy was correctly stamped by the FCC with the date "March 9, 1992."

3. When the Public Notice was released with regard to the amendment, Dan Alpert, the attorney for Shellee Davis, observed that the filing date listed on the Public Notice was March 10, 1992, and not March 9, 1992. He then instructed me to show our FCC date stamped copy of the amendment to FCC office personnel in order to correct the apparent error. I showed our copy to Bill Cayton in the Secretary's office and he agreed that an error had been made by the Secretary's office in date stamping the filed copies of the amendment. He said that he would change the date stamps of the filed copies to read March 9, 1992 and would have the FCC issue an erratum. The erratum was issued on March 30, 1992.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

David B. Spillerman

Signed and dated this 24th day of April, 1992.
